

2 Days trip in Andaman and Nicobar Islands, India

28 Oct, 2024 - 29 Oct, 2024

Day 1

Location	City	Description	Duration
Cellular Jail	Port Blair	A former British prison, now a poignant memorial to India's struggle for independence.	120
Samudrika Naval Marine Museum	Port Blair	A naval museum showcasing the history of the Indian Navy in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.	60
Anthropological Museum	Port Blair	The Anthropological Museum showcases the rich tribal culture and history of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.	60
Aberdeen Bazaar	Port Blair	A bustling market offering local handicrafts, souvenirs, and clothing.	120
Ross Island	Port Blair	A once-thriving British colonial outpost, now a haunting reminder of the past, covered in dense jungle.	180
Corbyn's Cove Beach	Port Blair	A popular beach in Port Blair, known for its white sand and clear waters.	120

Day 2

Location	City	Description	Duration
Radhanagar Beach	Havelock Island	Radhanagar Beach is a pristine, white-sand beach on Havelock Island, known for its stunning beauty and clear turquoise waters.	180
Elephant Beach	Havelock Island	A beautiful beach known for its white sand and clear water, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and snorkeling.	180
Scuba Diving	Havelock Island	Explore vibrant coral reefs and diverse marine life.	120
Snorkeling	Havelock Island	Explore vibrant coral reefs and diverse marine life.	120