

4 Days trip in Andaman and Nicobar Islands, India

28 Oct, 2024 - 31 Oct, 2024

Day 1

Location	City	Description	Duration
Cellular Jail	Port Blair	A former British prison, now a poignant memorial to India's struggle for independence.	120
Samudrika Naval Marine Museum	Port Blair	A naval museum showcasing the history of the Indian Navy in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.	60
Anthropological Museum	Port Blair	The Anthropological Museum showcases the rich tribal culture and history of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.	60
Aberdeen Bazaar	Port Blair	A bustling market offering local handicrafts, souvenirs, and clothing.	120
Marina Park	Port Blair	A beautiful park with a beach, offering stunning views and relaxation.	120
Corbyn's Cove Beach	Port Blair	A popular beach in Port Blair, known for its white sand and clear waters.	120

Day 2

Location	City	Description	Duration
Radhanagar Beach	Havelock Island	Radhanagar Beach is a pristine, white-sand beach on Havelock Island, known for its stunning beauty and clear turquoise waters.	240
Elephant Beach	Havelock Island	A beautiful beach known for its white sand and clear water, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and snorkeling.	180
Scuba Diving or Snorkeling	Havelock Island	Ferry ride to Neil Island, a popular destination for its pristine beaches and laid-back atmosphere.	120

Day 3

Location	City	Description	Duration
Bharatpur Beach	Neil Island	A beautiful beach known for its white sand and clear blue waters.	180
Laxmanpur Beach	Neil Island	A serene beach known for its pristine sands and calm waters, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and water sports.	180
Natural Bridge	Neil Island	A natural rock formation on the island of Baratang, offering scenic views and opportunities for trekking.	60
Sitapur Beach	Neil Island	A serene beach known for its pristine white sand and clear turquoise waters.	120

Day 4

Location	City	Description	Duration
Ross Island	Port Blair	A once-thriving British colonial outpost, now a haunting reminder of the past, covered in dense jungle.	120
North Bay Island	Port Blair	A small island near Port Blair, known for its pristine beaches, coral reefs, and water sports.	180
Chidiya Tapu	Port Blair	A scenic sunset point known for its birdwatching opportunities and stunning views of the Bay of Bengal.	120
Local Market	Port Blair	Port Blair is the capital of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, a group of islands in the Bay of Bengal.	120